PhD positions at UCL on Pension Reforms-Call for Application 2018

As part of a 2018-2023 interdisciplinary research project on pension reforms, UCL-Belgium is opening up to 5 full-time PhD positions, starting Sept. 2018 or Sept 2019. Candidates must have completed/ or be about to complete a Master's degree in actuarial sciences, economics/econometric, law or philosophy (and related disciplines), and have an interest in interdisciplinary work.

The scholarships are for a maximal duration of 39 months. At the end of the first and second year, recipients are committed to apply for FNRS/FRIA/FRESH or similar grants. The yearly amount paid is € 37.000 gross. A career plan will be established for each recruited person, involving scientific objectives, acquisition and valorisation of skills, as well as the employment perspectives both inside and outside academia.

Interested candidates should email the following documents in pdf format to ariane.robyn@uclouvain.be no later than June 15, 2018.

- curriculum vitae;
- a letter of motivation
- 2 recommendation letters

Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed during the 2 last weeks of June 2018.

The academic project leaders at UCLouvain are: Prof. Alexia Autenne, Prof. Pierre Devolder, Prof. Axel Gosseries, Prof. Jean Hindriks & Prof. Vincent Vandenberghe
